We respectfully ask that all cell phones be turned off or set on silent or vibrating mode while you are in session. If you must make or receive a call, we ask that you leave the room or building during sessions and presentations to do so. Thank you for your cooperation!
Day One

7:45-8:40 a.m. Student and Family/Guest Check-in
Residential College Courtyard
Housing check-in: If you have decided to stay in the residence hall during orientation, make sure you check in at the lobby of the Residential College. Remember to check out prior to breakfast on the second day.
Students: If you are planning to stay with a friend, make sure you both check in at the same time.

8:45-9:45 a.m. Welcome to the University of Mississippi
Fulton Chapel
Students and their family members will be welcomed to the university by members of our student orientation staff and university administration, and will hear an overview of the day’s events.

9:55-10:40 a.m. Rebel to Rebel: Freshman Discussion Group 1
Various campus locations (Find your group number outside Fulton Chapel.)
Members of our student orientation staff will meet with you in a small group of students. Your leader will discuss student-support services and university resources. In addition, he or she will go over the orientation schedule, student handbook and other details of your session. This is your opportunity to ask important questions about your student transition to the University of Mississippi.

10:45-10:55 a.m. Student Break
Student Union Plaza
Take a break from the summer heat, and enjoy a refreshing beverage.

11 a.m.-noon The Way to Pay at Ole Miss – Financial Aid and Bursar
Fulton Chapel
In this session representatives from the Bursar and Financial Aid offices will discuss everything you need to know about scholarships, loans, grants, work-study opportunities, MESG, prepaid tuition plans (from all states), billing, full costs of attendance, the monthly bursar bill students receive and more.

Lunch
Rebel Market (Paul B. Johnson Commons)
Enjoy lunch in our Rebel Market, an all-you-can-eat dining facility.

Noon-1 p.m. The Way to Pay at Ole Miss – Financial Aid and Bursar
Fulton Chapel
In this session representatives from the Bursar and Financial Aid offices will discuss everything you need to know about scholarships, loans, grants, work-study opportunities, MESG, prepaid tuition plans (from all states), billing, full costs of attendance, the monthly bursar bill students receive and more.

Lunch
Rebel Market (Paul B. Johnson Commons)
Enjoy lunch in our Rebel Market, an all-you-can-eat dining facility.
1:05-1:30 p.m. Health Professions Advising Information Meeting
Fulton Chapel
Learn about the UM Health Professions Advising Office, and hear more about preparing to enter a health-related profession such as medicine, nursing or physical therapy. This meeting is open to students from all majors who are interested in any health-related profession, excluding pharmacy.

1:35-2:20 p.m. Transition to Tradition: Student Panel
Fulton Chapel
Got questions for Ole Miss students? Want to hear about the REAL Ole Miss experience? Interested in learning how to get more involved? In this session, upper-class students will answer questions about involvement, leadership and service opportunities, and what it’s like to be a student on campus.

Session is MANDATORY. Your leader will be taking attendance.

Is It Really Time to Say Goodbye?
The Inn at Ole Miss Ballroom
This session offers advice on helping your students make a successful transition to college. Topics covered include tips on how to make those “difficult” conversations with your student go more smoothly and how to help your student make the transition from dependent living at home to life as an independent college student. Even if you have older students in college, this is a session you don’t want to miss. This has been our top rated session by previous orientation parents and features several Student Affairs staff members.

2:30-3:20 p.m. Responsible Rebel
Fulton Chapel
During this interactive session, representatives from the Office of Conflict Resolution and Student Conduct, Oxford Police Department and Violence Prevention Office will share some of Ole Miss’ cultural realities regarding alcohol/drug use and violence prevention. Topics covered include UM policies on alcohol; the Two-Strike/Minimum Sanction disciplinary policy; making appropriate choices and reducing harmful outcomes; the GREEN DOT bystander intervention program, Title IX, and the importance of having a parent/student conversation after orientation about related behaviors before coming to college.

Session is MANDATORY. Your leader will be taking attendance.

Respect the M: How to Maximize Your College Experience
The Inn at Ole Miss Ballroom
Interested in how to effectively navigate college and maximize your experience while you are here? This session details the many benefits of being a college student here at the University of Mississippi, outlines expectations for college students, and reveals the different and diverse opportunities open to students. You do not have to figure this out alone. Secrets will be revealed!

3:20-3:30 p.m. Student and Family/Guest Break
Fulton Chapel Plaza & The Inn at Ole Miss Foyer
Join us to enjoy a refreshing beverage and snack, and cool down from the summer heat.

4:30-5:20 p.m. Campus Connections
Fulton Chapel

Campus involvement is critically important to your success as a student. Come learn about the many ways to be involved through our 250+ student organizations and the three Greek life councils. Our campus leaders will share why students who are involved are better students (as in higher grades).

Session is MANDATORY. Your leader will be taking attendance

4:30-5:20 p.m. Ask the Experts: Orientation Leader Panel
The Inn at Ole Miss Ballroom

Year after year, this is another of our top rated sessions for parents. This session features a panel of several orientation leaders and gives you the chance to ask any questions you want about the student experience at Ole Miss. This is an uncensored panel, and you’ll get the truth from our students about what life here is really like. It’s fun, informative, eye-opening, and you’ll be glad you went.

5:20-6:30 p.m. Dinner on the Grounds & Rebel Roundup
University Circle

Come enjoy dinner on the grounds as we dine under the majestic oaks in the Circle. Join Ole Miss students, faculty and staff for great food and conversation. During and after dinner, stop by some of the many tables set up by campus clubs and organizations, and find out how you can get involved at Ole Miss from day one!

5:30-7:45 p.m. Guest and Family Member Reception & Campus Tours
Bryant Hall Lobby. Tours will depart from the front steps of Bryant Hall.

Enjoy dessert and coffee, and meet with administrators, student affairs directors and staff, orientation leaders and other parents in the beautiful lobby of Bryant Hall. This is your opportunity to ask any unanswered questions and just relax. We also offer the option of a walking tour of campus or a driving tour in one of Oxford’s Double Decker buses. Tours will run continuously every 30 minutes.

6:45-7:45 p.m. Veterans & Military Services (not ROTC)
Fulton Chapel

Ole Miss Veterans and Military Services (OVMS) is designed to enhance growth at Ole Miss by reaching out to veterans, service members and dependents, and provide them with assistance, advocacy and counseling while they obtain a degree at Ole Miss. Topics covered are VA and TA educational processes, services on campus, student veteran organizations and upcoming events for fall.

6:45-7:45 p.m. Rebel to Rebel: Freshman Discussion Group No. 2
Various locations & Fulton Chapel

Get back into your small group in the Circle, review the day, go over how to register for classes, and participate in some activities with other orientation leaders and their groups.

Session is MANDATORY. Your leader will be taking attendance.
7:50-9:30 p.m.  Orientation Block Party
Student Union Plaza
Come enjoy a snow cone and music hosted by a DJ, and take some pictures in our photo booth. Even if you are not in the mood for a snow cone or pictures, this is a great way to socialize with the orientation leaders and new students.

DAY TWO

6:45-7:50 a.m.  Breakfast
Residential College Dining Hall
Breakfast is offered in the Residential College dining facility and features hot and continental options. Good food, great atmosphere and time to read the morning paper.

8:05-9 a.m.  Academic School Meetings
Various locations – Meet at the Residential College lawn
(You will be escorted by the student orientation staff.)
This is your first opportunity to meet with officials from your academic school and hear about the academic requirements specific to your department. This includes the types of classes you need for your degree, number of hours required to graduate and the advising process.

9:15-12:30 p.m.  Academic Advising & Course Registration
Various locations (Your advising time will be distributed at the end of the Block Party or breakfast.)
Academic advisers have been hand selected to work with students during orientation. Our advisers are specifically trained to work with new students to help them select the right type and number of classes toward a four-year graduation goal. Adviser meetings typically last about 30 minutes and may be conducted in a one-on-one or group setting. After advising, you will move to the next phase of orientation – class schedule input at Weir Hall or FedEx computer labs.

9:20-9:55 a.m.  Campus Networking Session A
Various locations – Please select one of the interest sessions below to attend.

- Dining Services/Ole Miss Bookstore – Fulton Chapel
  In this session, you will learn the ins and outs of the required freshman meal plan, Flex and Express dollars, and everything you’ve wanted to know about living and thriving in the residence halls at Ole Miss. Come and hear residence hall survival tips, learn what you can and cannot bring to your room this fall, and also great tips to help you make move-in day smooth and painless, as well as all the services provided to students through Ole Miss Dining.

- Campus Safety – Union Ballroom
  One of the hallmarks of our university is its ranking as the ninth safest campus in the nation by The Daily Beast online newspaper. At Ole Miss, campus safety begins with the relationship our police officers seek to develop with students. You will learn about how we keep one another safe.

- University Libraries – Library Lobby next to Starbucks
  Think the library is a boring place that no one uses? Think again! Our librarians help students at every stage of the research process. You can even get a latte in the library! This fun tour will show you what makes the library unique while also showing you firsthand why it is anything but boring. A cool glass of lemonade and a stop by the Writing Center are included.
10-10:35 a.m.  Campus Networking Session B
Various locations – Please select one of the interest sessions below to attend.

Technology @ Ole Miss – Fulton Chapel
Laptop or desktop? PC or Mac? Software, hardware, connectivity, email, appropriate policies, Blackboard and much more. Come learn everything you’ve ever wanted to know about technology on the Ole Miss campus.

Campus Employment – Union Ballroom
It is no secret that many students at Ole Miss work. Come learn about the various opportunities to work on campus that you probably don’t even know exist! Gain valuable experience, meet people, and earn spending money while you are here.

Student Disabilities – Union 405
In this session, students and parents will learn about the accommodations that are provided to approved students with disabilities and the procedure to use when applying for accommodations. Participants will also have the opportunity meet with SDS staff members and ask specific questions related to disability access at the University of Mississippi.

10:40-11 a.m.  BREAK
Student Union Plaza
Take a break from the summer heat, and enjoy a refreshing beverage.

11:05-11:40 a.m.  Campus Networking Session C
Various locations – Please select one of the interest sessions below to attend.

Transportation/Parking Services – Fulton Chapel
In this session, you will learn about all issues related to parking and transportation on campus. This includes vehicle registration, parking-rules enforcement, bicycles, campus shuttle service, and the ZipCar and ZimRide programs.

Getting to Know Your College Professors – Union Ballroom
In this session, we will go way beyond “meeting your professors,” which, when you think about it, is not much beyond a handshake and introduction. Come learn how to facilitate positive interaction between you and the most important contacts you will have in college. Come with questions, and be prepared to be asked questions as well. We will discuss faculty expectations, how to be successful in building relationships, and what YOU should expect and demand from your professors.

Career Center – Student Union 404 A & B
Do you think the Career Center is a place for seniors seeking jobs? Well, you are right, but it offers much more. The Career Center works with freshmen too, helping them to discover their interests, choose a major and find a job or internship. Additionally, its staff helps build your resume and will even take you through mock interviews so that you are prepared when the actual interview day arrives. Come learn how to enhance your college experience with the Career Center professionals.
11:45-12:20 a.m. Campus Networking Session D
Various locations – Please select one of the interest sessions below to attend.

All about Athletics Tickets – Fulton Chapel
In this session, you will learn how to buy your athletics tickets, learn about the new incentives program and much more!

Diversity on Campus – Student Union 405
Hear from student leaders about opportunities to meet students from diverse backgrounds and the numerous multicultural organizations and social opportunities available on the Ole Miss campus. This is also a great time to talk to student leaders from multicultural organizations and ask them questions about their campus experience at Ole Miss.

12:30-1 p.m. Ole Miss Send-off
Fulton Chapel
We hope you enjoyed your orientation! Come to our send-off for an official goodbye from the orientation leaders and staff members. Students can pick up their orientation T-shirts at the end of the program.

1-1:30 p.m. University Housing
Fulton Chapel
In this session, you’ll learn everything you’ve wanted to about living on campus. We’ll discuss preparing for move in, the actual move-in event, and life in our residential communities.

1:30-3 p.m. Model Residence Hall Rooms Open for Viewing –
(only opportunity available during orientation)
Various locations
Check out a room in the building that will be your home in Fall 2014. The rooms shown are examples of the most common floor plans in each residence hall. Because we have elementary through college age students living in our halls in the summer, we ask that you don’t enter our community bathrooms or other parts of the buildings. Don’t worry about measuring while you’re visiting. We have all room and furniture measurements online!

*Residence Hall Showrooms:  *
Brown 111 (not open for orientations in May)
Crosby 154
Deaton 106
Kincannon 122
Minor 137 (Burns and Ridge North rooms are the same)
RC South 244 (Luckyday RC rooms are the same)
Stewart 217
Hefley 105

Due to electrical and elevator work in Martin and Stockard halls this summer, we will not have showrooms in those buildings. Residents are encouraged to visit similar rooms in Deaton and Hefley.

Alma Mater
Way down South in Mississippi
There’s a spot that ever calls
Where among the hills enfolded
Stand old Alma Mater’s halls
Where the trees lift high their branches
To the whispering Southern breeze
There Ole Miss is calling, calling
To our hearts fond memories.
