7:55-8:15 a.m. Day Two Overview • Fulton Chapel
Receive important instructions to successfully navigate the second day of orientation.

8:25-9:25 a.m. Academic School Meetings • various locations
The advising process begins when you meet with officials from your academic school and hear about the academic requirements specific to your department. This includes the types of classes you need for your degree, number of hours required to graduate and the advising process.

9:45 a.m. Academic Advising & Course Registration • various locations
(Your advising time will be distributed at the end of the Hotty Toddy Hangout or breakfast.)
Academic advisers have been hand selected to work with students during orientation. Our advisers are specifically trained to work with new students to help them select the right type and number of classes toward a four-year graduation goal. Adviser meetings typically last about 30 minutes and may be conducted in a one-on-one or group setting. After advising, you will move to the next phase of orientation – class schedule input at Weir Hall or FedEx computer labs.

10-10:30 a.m. Campus Services A • various locations – Please select one of the interest sessions below to attend.

FASTrack • Student Union 323
Foundations for Academic Success Track (FASTrack) is designed to help first-year students transition from high school to college in a supportive environment. FASTrack students benefit from smaller and enhanced classes, individualized advising and mentoring, and a community of supportive peers.

Dining Services/Ole Miss Bookstore • Student Union Ballroom
In this session, you will learn the ins and outs of the required freshman meal plan, Flex and Express dollars and about all the resources the Ole Miss Bookstore offers.

Center for Inclusion & Cross Cultural Engagement • Student Union First Floor, Suite F
The center works to foster an environment that is characterized by open and ongoing communication that deepens students’ understanding of their own and others’ identity, culture and heritage. It is dedicated to creating a supportive and inclusive campus environment that complements the academic experience, connects and engages students with the university community, and provides opportunities for success in a multicultural society.

Writing Center • Lamar Hall, Suite C
The University of Mississippi Writing Center exists to help foster the improvement of student writing across UM’s campuses. Whether you are brainstorming for your first paper in Writing 101 or completing your senior Honors thesis, writing center consultants are here with open ears and open minds. Come visit us to learn more.

10:35-11:05 a.m. Campus Services B • various locations – Please select one of the interest sessions below to attend.

Technology @ Ole Miss • Student Union 323
Laptop or desktop? Windows or Mac? Software, hardware, connectivity, email, Blackboard and much more. Join us to learn everything you ever wanted to know about technology on the Ole Miss campus.

Career Center/Campus Employment • Student Union 321
Do you think the Career Center is a place for seniors seeking jobs? Well, you are right, but it offers much more. The Career Center works with freshmen too, helping them to discover their interests, choose a major and find a job or internship. Additionally, its staff helps build your resume and will even take you through mock interviews so that you are prepared when the actual interview day arrives. Come learn how to enhance your college experience with the Career Center professionals. It is no secret that many students at Ole Miss work. Come learn about the various opportunities to work on campus that you probably don’t even know exist! Gain valuable experience, meet people, and earn spending money while you are here.

University Libraries • J.D. Williams Library outside Starbucks
Think the library is a boring place that no one uses? Think again! Our librarians help students at every stage of the research process. You can even get a latte in the library! This fun tour will show you what makes the library unique while also showing you firsthand why it is anything but boring.
Haley Barbour Center for Manufacturing Excellence • CME Front Lobby
In this session, students and guests will learn about the CME and how to apply for their Sophomore Entry Program. As the only program of its kind in the entire country, this unique minor/emphasis program prepares students for the modern world of manufacturing through the lens of accountancy, business and engineering. Through their innovative student-focused curriculum, CME students are educated on the skills needed to become successful leaders in the modern workforce. Admission into the CME through the Sophomore Entry Program is competitive, and applications open in the spring semester of a student’s freshman year.

Center for Inclusion & Cross Cultural Engagement • Student Union First Floor, Suite F
The center works to foster an environment that is characterized by open and ongoing communication that deepens students’ understanding of their own and others’ identity, culture and heritage. It is dedicated to creating a supportive and inclusive campus environment that complements the academic experience, connects and engages students with the university community, and provides opportunities for success in a multicultural society.

Our Creed
The University of Mississippi is a community of learning dedicated to nurturing excellence in intellectual inquiry and personal character in an open and diverse environment. As a voluntary member of this community:

I believe in respect for the dignity of each person.
I believe in fairness and civility.
I believe in personal and professional integrity.
I believe in academic honesty.
I believe in academic freedom.
I believe in good stewardship of our resources.
I pledge to uphold these values and encourage others to follow my example.

Alma Mater
Way down South in Mississippi
There’s a spot that ever calls
Where among the hills enfolded
Stand old Alma Mater’s halls
Where the trees lift high their branches
To the whispering Southern breeze
There Ole Miss is calling, calling
To our hearts fond memories.
